1. Refund & Return Policy

Refund Eligibility

Customers can request a refund within 30 days of receiving their order. Refund requests can be submitted through the customer account.

Refund Processing

Approved refunds are generally processed within 5-7 business days. The time required for the refunded amount to appear may depend on the payment provider.

Return Condition

Items should be returned in their original condition whenever possible. Customers should contact customer support if an item arrives damaged or incorrect.

2. Order Tracking

Tracking an Order

Customers can track their order using the tracking number provided in the order confirmation email.

Tracking Status

The tracking page may show statuses such as processing, shipped, in transit, out for delivery, or delivered.

Missing Tracking Information

If a tracking number has not been received, customers should check their order confirmation email and contact customer support if the information is still unavailable.

3. Order Cancellation

Cancellation Before Shipment

Orders can be cancelled before they are shipped.

Cancellation After Shipment

Once an order has been shipped, cancellation may not be possible. Customers should contact support as soon as possible.

Cancellation Request

Customers should provide their order number when requesting cancellation.

4. Payment Information

Accepted Payment Methods

We accept credit cards, debit cards, and supported online payment methods.

Failed Payment

If a payment fails, customers can retry the payment or use another payment method.

Payment Confirmation

Customers should receive an order confirmation after a successful payment and order submission.

5. Delivery Information

Standard Delivery

Standard delivery usually takes 3-5 business days after the order has been shipped.

Delivery Tracking

Customers can check delivery status using the tracking page and the tracking number supplied with the order.

Delivery Delays

Delivery times may vary when an order is affected by carrier delays or other circumstances.

6. Damaged or Incorrect Items

Damaged Items

Customers who receive a damaged item should contact customer support and provide their order number and a description of the damage.

Incorrect Items

If an incorrect item is received, customers should contact support so the order can be reviewed.

Resolution

Support will review the reported issue and provide the appropriate next steps based on the order information.

7. Customer Account

Account Access

Customers can use their account to review order information and submit eligible refund requests.

Account Information

Customers should keep their account information accurate so that order-related communications can be delivered correctly.

Login Problems

Customers who cannot access their account should use the available account recovery options or contact customer support.
